ANTI-CLERICAL LEAGUE.-The political fight between the Liberal and Clerical parties in Mexic) is becoming animated, the Maximilian incident serving as additional provocation to bitter attacks and counterattacks in the press of the capital and interior. The Monitor Republicano had a remarkable leading article Saturday morning devoted to alleged plots of the clergy against republican institutions. It says there appears to be a well-formed plan to destroy, in Mexico, the precious achievment of religious liberty, and charges that the higher, as well as the lower classes of the clergy, are constantly preaching a cru-sade against religious tolerance as enjoined by the constitution of the country. The Monitor charges that ecclesiastical penalties are inflicted for reading the liberal party newspapers, and that recent acts of some of the bishops tend to revive the institutions of the middle ages. It also charges that this intolerance displayed in the persecutions of the people who held liberal. the people who held liberal views, is the chief cause of there being no influx of foreign immigration into the country, and says "It is feared, with reason, that the clergy contemplate repeating on Mexican soil the horrible atrocities of St. Bartholomew's D v in France." An anti-clerical league has been established in the City of Mexico. It declares undying hostility to the Jesuits, and states its purpose to be the emancipation of the Iudians of the country from the stavery of ecclesiastical rule, and compell-ing observance of the reform laws. The reing observance of the reform laws. The re-ingious controversy is likely to enter into the next presidential election. The clericals seem bound to oppose the development of inter-course with the United States, as favored the Disz administration, and the clerical organs all over the country show marked hostility to the United States and American institutions. Leading liberals say that Gen. Diaz will be triumphantly reelected, in order t) show the American peo-ple that Mexico is opposed to reaction, and desires the continued friendship of her powerful and enterprising neighbor.

Above all other earthly ills,
I hate the big old-fashioned pills;
By slow degrees they downward wend,
And often pause, or upward tend;
With such discomfort are they fraught.
Their good effects amount to naught.
Now, Dr. Pierce prepares a pill
That just exactly fills the bill—
A Pellet, rather, that is all—
A Pleasant Purgative, and small;
Just try them as you feel their need, Just try them as you feel their need, You'll find that I speak truth, indeed.

Mexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the old. est in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the eighty-seven years of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become

The GAZETTE has better facilities for all taining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dis patches from every part of the world; henceits patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with mer chants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurn and near the city, and this feature will. as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Ricimond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE's circulation is steadily in creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
